

STORY
PARKS

THE TALES of SAMMY FOX

NOTTINGHAM BUILDING SOCIETY:
The adventures of Sammy Fox
Children's story writing competition.

Closing date 31st August 2019

Sammy Fox always did the right thing for the people of Nottingham. This fabulous tale is based on the true story of Samuel Fox, a Quaker who founded Nottingham Building Society 170 years ago to help the people of Nottingham buy better places to live.

To celebrate the good work of Sammy Fox, which still lives on today, we're inviting children (up to the age of 16) to write a story based on Sammy's adventures..

- The best story will win a Waterstones gift voucher to the value of £25*
- The Nottingham Building Society team will be the judges of the best story and a winner will be chosen and contacted
- Children entering must be under the age of 16
- Please hand entries into your nearest branch

The Nottingham
Building Society

*For full terms and conditions visit thenottingham.com/terms-and-conditions

Stories can be as wacky, funny, dramatic, intense or moving as children wish – a chance to let their imaginations run free.

Stories should be a maximum of 500 words.

When you have finished writing your story, fill in your details below, making sure you have got permission from a parent/guardian. Then hand your finished story into one of our branches.

Parent/Guardian name _____ Child's name _____

Address _____ Age _____

Tel no _____ Branch handed into _____